

Level 3 Award in Education & Training (RQF)

Qualification Information

The Qualification

The Teacher Training Qualifications international Level 3 Award in Education and Training is regulated by Ofqual. The awarding body is CIBTAC.

Introduction

The Level 3 Award in Education and Training is an introductory teaching qualification, which prepares you for teaching or training in a wide range of contexts. It does not develop competence, as you are not required to be in a teaching position. The qualification is suitable for individuals who wish to teach in the Further Education and Skills Sector and forms a foundation for those with little or no previous experience of teaching or training.

The total hours of learning required for this qualification is 120.

Entry Requirements

The qualification is suitable for learners of 19 years of age and above.

There are no specific entry requirements and you do not have to have teaching practice hours to achieve the qualification, however you will need a good level of Maths & English.

Grading and Assessment

The qualification is assessed by internally set and marked assessments. All assessments must be met to achieve a Pass - there is no grading.

You must be involved in at least one hour of microteaching. You must deliver at least one 15-minute microteaching session, which is observed and assessed by a member of the TTQi Training staff team. For the additional 45 minutes, you can either deliver additional microteaching sessions or observe the microteaching sessions of other learners. You can deliver a one-to-one training session, providing this meets the requirements of the qualification.

Progression

Successful learners can progress to other teaching, training, assessment and internal quality assurance qualifications such as:

- Level 4 Certificate in Education and Training
- Level 5 Diploma in Education and Training
- Level 3 Award in Understanding the Principles and Practices of Assessment
- Level 3 Award in Assessing Competence in the Work Environment
